ADVENTURE OF THE BRAVES BLED & BOHINJ: CONOEING IN THE JULIAN ALPS

King Arthur had mists of Avalon, Ireland has the Hill of Tara and we have our own magical land, the valley of eastern Julian Alps. In early cenozoic era it was covered with sea (it is even said seashells can be found deep in the mountains!), today it is one of the most treasured natural gems of Slovenia. At first we will stretch our legs and make an easy hike to Savica waterfall, a breath-taking scenery which even inspired our greatest poet France Prešeren to write The Baptism on the Savica, an epic-lyric poem about the battle between Christians and pagan Slavs (our advice: while waiting for each other by Prešeren statue in Ljubljana, take a look at a bronze relief on the right side of the pedestal which shows a motive from the poem mentioned here). Our second dream activity is canoeing on the lake, you probably guessed it, Lake Bohinj. Accompanied by a rescue team and licenced canoe guide your only worry will be to wear a smile and comfortable clothes. Striving to describe the colour, smell and view of that place would be a fail - you simply have to experience it by yourselves.

Pleasantly tired from the fresh mountain air, we will continue our journey to Bled, where our tourist guide will show us some attractions and later on we will have a bite at tasting original local pastry, Bled custard cake (try to pronounce it in Slovenian »blejska kremšnita«).

After the sweet tooth experience, you will have plenty of free-time to catch a breath and have some rest. You will receive a list of restaurants where use of studentski boni is possible and a »birdfood« for feeding swans and ducks. As all good things must come to an end also our fairytale one-day trip will. In the late afternoon we will head back to our beloved Ljubljana.

There are no refunds for paid organized trips. If you decide not to attend, you can find a substitute participant and arrange the handover of the money on your own. We reserve the right to make changes to the organized trips as and when necessary. We also reserve the right to cancel a trip due to lack of interest or if any other circumstances beyond our control prevent us from organizing it. In case of cancellation from our side, we will refund the paid fees in full or offer the possibility to apply for a different trip (if there are available places).
